

Dear C.E.A. Family,

Nothing is impossible when people join their minds and hearts together to attain a goal. C.E.A. is a beautiful example of that thought. Our children are blossoming in an environment that promotes ethics, positive values, kindness and the pursuit of excellence.

None of that would be possible without the support, hard work and the trust of our families. With your actions you're setting high standards for your children. The preparation for Family Affair exemplifies your dedication to C.E.A. The bare hallways became a magical showcase of the children's and parent's imaginations. Every day when I walk in, I discover a little hidden treasure hanging from the ceiling. It can be a panda made of white rice and black beans, a little elephant made of computer disks, joyful pictures of smiling children – but my favorite is to open my office door to see parent and grandparent elves diligently creating artwork. That lifts my spirits, and it serves to remind me why I chose to live my life at C.E.A.

C.E.A. will continue growing as long as we have people believing in Conchita's dream and willing to put in work, time, effort, and enthusiasm.

Thank you to every teacher, parent, and student – past and present.

May God bless our family!
