

TWO CONCERTS FOR ONE ADMISSION PURCHASE!

Last November, we began the Conchita Espinosa Concert Series in partnership with the Centro Cultural Español. We had the pleasure of hosting Josu Okiñena, a wonderful Basque pianist, who gave an incredibly memorable concert in the Rosita Segovia Theatre. This year, we are proud to bring you two concerts in November, as an extension of our Hispanic Heritage celebrations.

As you know, an important part of our education is being exposed to the arts through concerts, plays, shows, and exhibits. The regular attendance of concerts and performances allows us to understand what we are studying and grow in our appreciation of the arts. Following that philosophy, we continually try to facilitate and encourage the attendance of professional concerts and performances for our CEA community. We highly encourage the Conchita family to attend these concerts. Both will take place in the Rosita Segovia Theatre at CEA.

General Admission is $20 and will allow you to attend both concerts.

Current CEA students may attend both concerts for $5.

CEA Teachers may attend both concerts for $10.

To purchase tickets, please turn in the ticket order form to Isabel Chao in the Conservatory

Both concerts will be open seating, no assigned seats. Tickets are non-refundable.

Please make checks payable to CEA.
