

HOME

By Michael Perez

Home is a place where people care about you. Where someone is waiting with open arms. A place of refuge and love. Home is anywhere where someone is thinking of you. It's where friends and family reside. And it's where you can feel free to do whatever you want, say whatever you want, and be yourself without being afraid. A home is the best place to be when you need help. At home, you'll always find what you need. Whether it be somewhere to relax or someone to talk to, Home is where you can go to get it. Home is where you've laughed and smiled all your life. It's where you've played with friends and met your one true love. Home is where your heart will always be.
